

ADI-ONE SHOT 100

Natural polymer

ADI-ONE SHOT 100 is used for denim and towel Yarn. It is recommended for Ring Spun Yarn. Which provides excellent protection to yarn. It gives excellent penetration inside out. ADI-ONE SHOT 100 is a sizing agent for use in textile warp sizing. The product may be used alone or in combination with other sizing agent. It is recommended for sizing a wide range of staple yarns-including cellulosic and cellulosic and synthetic yarns.

Properties

Chemical constitution:	ADI-ONE SHOT 100 is white powder product it is mixture of natural polymers.
pH	5 to 7
Physical form:	White Powder.
Storage stability:	ADI-ONE SHOT 100 is stable for Cold and dry condition when properly stored in closed containers at 20 °C.
Viscosity (8%)	20 to 25 second for cup
Solubility	Soluble After Cooking
Moisture	10 to 12%

1

NOTE: - The information and data contained herein are based on controlled or lab work. The recommendations are given on Previous experience basis but cannot be extended to cover every possible case. It should be verified and evaluated by The user by testing for the intended conditions of use. AIDA dyes & chemical does not express or imply any Warranty or guarantee. The suitability of the product for the application, intended by buyer of the product

GSHAN E IQBAL BLOCK 6, KARACHI Phone: 0335-2778141

Preparation

ADI-ONE SHOT 100 is water soluble and must be slowly added to the water with good agitation to avoid the creation of lumps. Cook according to the normal starch cooking procedures.

Application

ADI-ONE SHOT 100 is recommended for the sizing of cotton, rayon, polyester and blended staple yarns.

It may be applied alone at 5 to 7%.

The following are typical recipes.

ADI-ONE SHOT 100 70 kgs

Wax 02 kgs

Finish Volume 1000 Liters